

6

TO THE PARISHIONERS OF CHIRK;
In Relation to the Vicar's Essay upon Tythes.

BRETHREN,

UPON considering what has been lately made Publick, I cannot but take Notice of the Inability of the AUTHOR; who discovers Want of Reading, and even Understanding, what he has Read.

IF the Seed sown in our Parish, should produce so poor a Crop, as the Fruit of his Labours, the Tytbe would not be worth Contending for. He Manifests want of Understanding in the English TONGUE, almost in every Line; upon the whole we may as FRIENDS, Advise him to repair to School again. That he may Qualify himself to turn AUTHOR, which when he has done, when he can Write Grammatically, with good Sense, I shall recommend it to all to Listen to him, and heartily do so my self.

HIS want of Judgement and Misapplication of Scripture, by wrong Expounding it, Lies open to every one's View, and for my Part, I will never come into the Doctrine of an ignorant TEACHER let him be never so sanguine or opinionated of his own performances.

By J. E--t--n,
of Llwyn y Killn.

K

Printed at DERBY, 1728.